Section 172 Companies Act 2006

Section 172(1) of the Companies Act 2006 imposes a general duty on every company director to act, in good faith, in the way they consider would be most likely to promote the success of the Company for the benefit of its shareholders, while taking into account how the Company's activities and Board decisions will affect its stakeholders. This statement explains how the Company's Board complies with its obligations under s172 and is consistent with that disclosed in the consolidated Galliford Try Holdings pie's (the "Group") annual report for the year ended 30 June 2025.

The Company recognises the importance of its stakeholders' views and actively engages with them, proactively considering their interests in the decisions we make and the sustainability objectives we have set ourselves.

Shareholders

We must act in the interests of our shareholders to maintain the capital needed to fund our activities.

Communities

Through our principal activities, we serve the local communities and meet the needs of local groups, which is key to ensure we continue to be chosen as a partner of choice to carry out their needs.

- Direct engagement such as through our membership of the Considerate Constructors Scheme, local newsletters, town hall meetings and exhibitions, school and college visits, site tours, Open Doors and local community engagement plans.
- Indirect engagement such as an up-to-date website, press coverage and engaging in social media.

Standards of business conduct

The Board is acutely aware of the need to maintain high standards of business conduct. The Galliford Try Holdings pie group has a strong ethical culture, underpinned by our values, policies and our Code of Conduct, all of which are endorsed by the Board. The Code of Conduct sets out the ethical standards everyone in Galliford Try must adhere to and provides a framework to ensure we always behave in a way that reflects our values. The Group also has specific policies and procedures to prevent bribery and corruption, as described on page 49 of the Group's annual report for the year ended 30 June 2025.
